

MAHATMA GANDHI INSTITUTE OF MEDICAL SCIENCES, SEVAGRAM

MGIMS staff Supervisory Skills training

Date: 10-14 Aug 2020

Organizing Secretary/ coordinator: Dr Abhishek Raut

Number of delegates: 10

Key topics:

1. To understand the role of a supervisor
2. To develop skills of Supervision.
3. To promote development in 0-3 years of age.
4. Supportive role in supervision when AWWs administer GMCD tool for child development
5. Introduction to developmental delays and disabilities

Key resource persons:

- Ummeed Child Development Center Resource persons: Dr. Ashwini Vaishampayan, Dr. Namrata Edwards, Dr. Priya Jacobs, Dr. Aditi Bramhabhatt

Funding agencies: Porticus

Total funding received:

Amount of funds received from registration fees: Nil

Credit points from MMC and registration number:

REPORT

This training primarily aimed at developing supervisory skills for supporting Anganwadi Workers during their Home visits. Following topics were covered during the training:

- Introduction to Early child development and its importance, Promotional visits, Referral visits, Supportive visits, Algorithm, work on disabilities by RBSK team
- Introduction of skills and role of supervision. Introduction to the types of supervision.

- Understanding of the Supervisory role, discussion about the best practices of supervision
- Strength based recommendation, documentation of home-visits.